

1. Not like them

Here I am just waiting for something
Here I am waiting for a sign
I could just pretend everything's fine
I could try to keep it inside

But I'm not this kind of person
No I'm not this...
Oh I'm not this kind of person
No I'm not like them

I swear I'll find you
I swear I won't leave you
I swear I'll find you
I swear I won't leave you

As always, I'll do what I'm meant to
As always, I'll bend my head and walk
All that's left is hope and waiting
All I know is I won't give up

Cause I'm not this kind of person
No I'm not this...
Oh I'm not this kind of person
No I'm not like them

I swear I'll find you
I swear I won't leave you
I swear I'll find you
I swear I won't leave you

I swear I'll find you
I swear I won't leave you
I swear I'll find you
I swear I won't leave you

2. It's All About Her

When she's around me, I forget everything around
When she talks to me, my heart is pounding, i can't help smiling
She's not anyone, she makes me beam, she makes me dream
She's not anyone, and that is not surprising

Cause it's all about the way she laughs,
The way she talks, the way she smiles
It's all about how funny and smart she is
It's all about her, and that's all that matters

I dream I'd just take her in my arms, to feel her perfume and her warmth
I wish we could talk, just she and I, over and over
That's not a matter of interest, there's nothing sounder than this She's so many things I like, but she's something that I will never have

Cause it's all about the way she laughs,
The way she talks, the way she smiles
It's all about how funny and cute she is
It's all about her, and that's all that matters

Cause it's all about the way she laughs,
The way she talks, the way she smiles
It's all about how funny and sweet she is
It's all about her, and that's all that matters

3. The More I See Her

Once again, it starts to decline,
Once again I try not to fall
Nothing's black, and nothing's white
Seems like it's all just made of grey

In my mind, she's all the time
In my dreams, she even comes
But I can't take it anymore
There's just too much to repress

The more I see her, the more it hurts to love her
It's the same thing again and again
If only she knew the things I wanna tell her
Cause there are so many, yeah so many things...

I knew it would all come to this
I knew it from the beginning
When she's the only one who could get it
But she's the only one who mustn't know

I can't even think of her now
Without having a pang
A pang for the things to come
A pang for the truth I can't bear

The more I see her, the more it hurts to love her
It's the same thing again and again
If only she knew the things I wanna tell her
Cause there are so many, yeah so many things...

The more I see her, the more it hurts to love her
It's the same thing again and again
If only she knew the things I wanna tell her
Cause there are so many, yeah so many things...

4. No need to lie

When you are judged for who you are
When they blame you for who you love
When they wanna destroy your only joy
And make their wishes come before your needs

«There's nothing to worry about
No need to lie, no need to hide»
That's what I would like to hear them say

What kind of people can judge their own daughter
Look at her and just insult her?
If only you cared about how she feels
You're the ones who should be ashamed

«There's nothing to worry about
No need to lie, no need to hide»
That's what I would like to hear them say

Just look at her and tell me what you see
Just look at her and tell me what you see

«There's nothing to worry about
No need to lie, no need to hide»
That's what I would like to hear them say

5. Last Forever

In a peaceful place at a peaceful time
I can see nobody but you and I
Sharing this moment I never thought I'd live
Knowing that there'll be so many others

A soft light is shining down on your face
A slight breeze is blowing in your hair
The touch of your hand slowly caressing mine
Takes me somewhere I've never been before

In your arms is where I wanna be
In your heart is where I belong
I wish this could last forever
I wish this could last forever

You and I having this laugh
It's nothing more or less than joy
Your warmth is filling every hole of my heart
And time stops to let you shine

All my sorrows are flying away
All my doubts are denied and calmed down
I am holding the answers in my hands
And no one can take them away

In your arms is where I wanna be
In your heart is where I belong
I wish this could last forever
I wish this could last forever

In your arms is where I wanna be
In your heart is where I belong
I wish this could last forever
I wish this could last forever

6. The Way Things Are

I'm looking down at her
Sleeping so tight
She's all I wanted
She's all I needed...to keep on hoping

I feel loved at last
I feel safe by her side
There could be a war out there
I'd still be lost in her eyes

Her smile is shining down on my face
Too long I've been without her
The best feeling I could ever feel
Just the way things are...and will be

Let her down, I never would Protect her, I always will
As long as there's this glimmer
I'll try and look after her...no matter what

More than a wish, it's a belief
This fairytale won't end tonight
Cause she and I
It's just more than this

Her smile is shining down on my face
Too long I've lived without her
The best feeling I could ever feel
Just the way things are...and will be

Her smile is shining down on my face
Too long I've been without her
The best feeling I could ever feel
Just the way things are...and will be

7. Des Etoiles dans la Poussière

Deux filles face à un miroir,
Un soldat abîmé par la guerre,
Mais quand vas-tu me toucher ?
Si seulement tout pouvait arriver

Laisse-moi vivre à travers toi,
T'ébranler encore une fois,
Dans nos rêves rien n's'ra plus pareil,
Une histoire pour toi et moi

Une musique à mes oreilles,
Tellement plus qu'il n'y paraît
Des étoiles dans la poussière,
Une lumière à part entière

Dans le doute et la passion,
Entre union et communion,
Un étang au bout du monde,
La réponse à toutes ces tombes

Un ambigu du bout des ailes,
Et le ciel n'est plus pareil,
Les pervers ne sont plus permis,
Et la folie à l'infini

Une musique à mes oreilles,
Tellement plus qu'il n'y paraît
Des étoiles dans la poussière,
Une lumière à part entière

Une musique à mes oreilles,
Tellement plus qu'il n'y paraît
Des étoiles dans la poussière,
Une lumière à part entière

9. Perfume and Skin

Perfume and skin
Pieces of you
Inside my head
Memories of you

Your touch and your taste
Still there, still in me
Voices and shapes
Still here, still with me

Can you reach me?
Tell me you will
Never leave me
Promise me you'll be there when it comes

Perfume and skin
Your stories and my dreams
Twinkling skies
Above our heads

All over again
Sweet things you told me
All over again
Your smile in my mind

Can you reach me?
Tell me you will
Never leave me
Promise me you'll be there when it comes

Can you reach me?
Tell me you will
Never leave me
Promise me you'll be there when it comes
Oh when it comes, when it comes
(By my side, you'll be there Never leave, you promise me)

10. Blue Today

Oh I am blue today
Can't remember feeling any better
Was there a time when it was all clear?
Now it doesn't matter anymore

Dad tried to hit me again
Mom looked at me with disgust
Maybe this time I won't come back
Now everyone here is gone

No ambition, no envy
There's nothing left but you and me
My emptiness, my soulmate
Just a little voice in my head

They all say I'm just a weird guy
Well maybe I really am
Never knew how to fit in
Now I won't even have to try

Should I leave and try to move on?
'Cause I know that I never will
I guess I'll just stick to myself
Staying the same is my only fate

No ambition, no envy
There's nothing left but you and me
My emptiness, my soulmate
Just a little voice in my head

No ambition, no envy
There's nothing left but you and me
My emptiness, my soulmate
Just a little voice in my head

11. Come in Time

Many dissatisfactions
Are running in our life now
You wish we could fast forward
And skip it all for better days

But they seem so far from now
You'd think we'll never reach them
But deep down I just know it
We must keep moving on

So get up, get up and don't leave me now
Stand up, stand up it's all in your mind and
Hang on, hang on you'll see it will come
In time

I'll hold your hand in the dark
I'll keep you warm the best I can
We'll face it all through the days
And we'll fly away in the end

It's something we can't run from
There is no back door exit
If all of them succeeded
Then tell me why wouldn't we ?

We still have time on our side
So let's not waste it wondering
If something better's coming
We should just make it happen

So get up, get up and don't leave me now
Stand up, stand up it's all in your mind and
Hang on, hang on you'll see it will come
In time

I'll hold your hand in the dark
I'll keep you warm the best I can
We'll face it all through the days
And we'll fly away in the end

12. Home

One word from you
I feel whole and light again
One look from you
Trust and love is all I see

One touch from you
Shivers all over my skin
One smell from you
Home is what it reminds me

Home in your arms
Hope it will last
Hold me again
Cause home is your arms

One thing I want
Is never to be without you
One urge for now
Is to come and knock at your door again

Home in your arms
Hope it will last
Hold me again
Cause home is your arms

13. Just for Tonight

Just another song
To tell you how I feel
Don't know how to begin
Not to sound trite and dull

You're just the one I need
You made me the way I am
And you've always been there
By my side, any time

Just for tonight
I won't be shy, I'll just say it
I love you and I can't thank you enough
For all the things you've done

I know we've had
Some rough times but don't worry
You are not the one to blame
I admire your strength

You've faced so many things
No matter how hard it was
And you've always been there
By my side, any time

Just for tonight
I won't be shy, I'll just say it
I love you and I can't thank you enough
For all the things you've done

Just for tonight
I won't be shy, I'll just say it
I love you and I can't thank you enough
For all the things you've done

14. You'll always be

Summertime is coming
But my heart is aching
A new life's arriving
Yet I can't help remembering

I don't really wanna sing this Cause it hurts more than you'd guess
Always trying to do my best
Not to say a word about you

And yet you're there
In my mind everyday
And even though time flies
I think you'll always be

In this room when I don't feel good
In this seat with that look of pride on your face
Behind this desk just laughing so loud
On the phone, crying all your pain out

Trying to keep the good memories
Instead of the bad ones that surround me
But I don't know what's going on
They all hurt as hell now that you're gone

My glassy eyes are shut now
But they won't block the tears out
I feel like no matter what
You and I are bound forever now

Because you're there
In my mind everyday
And even though time flies
I think you'll always be

In this room when I don't feel good
In this seat with that look of pride on your face
Behind this desk just laughing so loud
On the phone, crying all your pain out
I guess you'll always be...

Crush

It all started with her scent
A lightness in the air
Butterflies invaded my chest
And that was already too late

It's just another stupid crush
That will make me go insane
Whenever I'm near her, I blush
And I'm the only one to blame

And what am i supposed to say ?
There's not a thing i wouldn't do
What can I change anyway ?
She makes me live again

I know it isn't fair to her
But I can't help myself
It's not even worth the fight
It will soon be over anyway

It all started with her scent
A lightness in the air
Butterflies invaded my chest
And that was already too late

Violence

You looked down and I saw you
Casting shadows passing through
Trust and fear were once foes
Now you made them feel so close

Your body and soul feel the same
All doubt and spite but never shame
Cause in the end, it's all pretend
Now every piece I have to mend

Just before I got hit, bittersweet on your lips
Sour and sweet, the flavor of your heart
We were never meant to part

Bury your thoughts on stormy nights
You never knew how not to fight
Staying still while growing slow
Underneath you have to go

On the verge of spinning round
Shut your mind and look around
There's nothing left to take
Dancing soul will never break

Just before I got hit, bittersweet on your lips
Sour and sweet, the flavor of your heart
We were never meant to part
